

WHEREAS; social work professionals consistently work to meet the needs and strengthen the well-being of all people in Wisconsin and across the United States; and

WHEREAS; professionals in the field of social work serve on the frontlines, meeting individuals where they are at, at all stages of their lives to respond to needs such as homelessness, housing insecurity, mental health, and substance use disorders, while also attending to the spectrum of social issues that affect kids and families; and

WHEREAS; the compassion, hard work, and courage of social workers have helped uplift and empower people, nurturing their ability to solve problems, helping them build upon their strengths, and assisting them in accessing the resources they need to thrive; and

WHEREAS; through their dedication and support, social workers also play a vital role in advancing the vision of the Wisconsin Department of Children and Families (DCF)—and all of state government—that all of Wisconsin’s kids are safe and loved members of thriving families and communities; and

WHEREAS; this year’s Social Work Month theme, “Social Work: Uplift. Defend. Transform.,” shines a light on the resolute spirit of social workers who transform lives while bringing hope, healing, and justice to the communities they serve; and

WHEREAS; this month, the state of Wisconsin joins DCF and community organizations across the state in celebrating and thanking the state’s social workers for the countless contributions they make each day to improve the lives of kids, families, and all Wisconsinites;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim March 2026 as

SOCIAL WORK MONTH

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state’s residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 26th day of February 2026.

TONY EVERS, Governor

By the Governor:

SARAH GODLEWSKI, Secretary of State