

WHEREAS; access to a high-quality public education is vital to the success of the state and country, playing an essential role in safeguarding the freedom and autonomy of the state’s residents and communities; and

WHEREAS; providing Wisconsin’s youth with a well-rounded education is a priority for the state, and the steadfast work and advocacy of educators, administrators, policymakers, parents, and guardians is crucial to advancing and improving educational opportunities for every student across the state; and

WHEREAS; for kids to reach their full potential, their education must include a curriculum that promotes the development and strengthening of moral character, champions empathy for others, and uplifts knowledge on how to establish and maintain positive relationships and make informed, responsible decisions; and

WHEREAS; recognized nationwide since 1978, Education and Sharing Day pays tribute to the work of the Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem M. Schneerson, a global spiritual leader of the Jewish community and a tireless advocate for youth and high-quality education worldwide; and

WHEREAS; the Rebbe dedicated his life to promoting the betterment of all people through an increased focus on education, emphasizing the importance of ensuring access to high-quality education for all kids; and

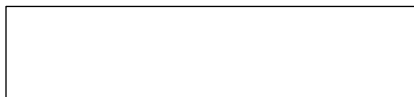

WHEREAS; today, the state of Wisconsin honors the Rebbe’s legacy by encouraging acts of goodness and kindness in his memory and reaffirms its commitment to establishing an accessible and equitable educational system that enables all students to reach their full potential;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim March 29 2026 as

WISCONSIN EDUCATION AND SHARING DAY

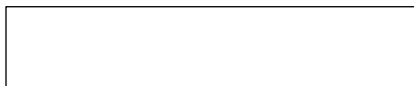

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state’s residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 25th day of March 2026.

TONY EVERS, Governor

By the Governor:

SARAH GODLEWSKI, Secretary of State