

WHEREAS; school library programs provide access to a wide variety of essential educational materials and play a vital role in the literacy and learning of students worldwide; and

WHEREAS; reading is core to personal and academic competency, and to support the academic success of all learners, school librarians work to promote the importance of reading proficiency and comprehension; and

WHEREAS; data from the American Library Association shows record increases in book-banning efforts and legislation across the country—including in Wisconsin—where hundreds of unique books were challenged to be retained, restricted, or revoked from school and public libraries in 2024; and

WHEREAS; school libraries strive to develop and maintain programs and collections that are as unique as the populations they serve and work diligently to ensure equity of access for all by offering opportunities for students to explore new worlds and become their best, most successful selves through access to books, technology, multimedia content, and educational resources; and

WHEREAS; investing in the success of Wisconsin’s libraries has never been more important, and this month, the state of Wisconsin joins all Wisconsinites in celebrating school libraries and the role of school librarians in providing a high-quality education to students across the state;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim April 2026 as

SCHOOL LIBRARY MONTH

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state’s residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 25th day of March 2026.

TONY EVERS, Governor

By the Governor:

SARAH GODLEWSKI, Secretary of State
