

STATE of WISCONSIN

OFFICE of the GOVERNOR

Proclamation

WHEREAS; according to the Wisconsin Community Action Program Association (WISCAP), one in ten Wisconsinites lives below the federal poverty line, and the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction reported that more than 18,400 students across the state experienced homelessness during the 2022-23 school year; and

WHEREAS; community action agencies are robust state and local forces that connect the people they serve to life-changing services and create economic opportunities and pathways to prosperity for low-income individuals, and they can be found in almost every county in the United States; and

WHEREAS; since 1974, community action agencies in Wisconsin have contributed to policy development, community support and advocacy, and programming in the areas of affordable housing, weatherization, food security, employment, entrepreneurship, child development, community economic development, health, and education; and

WHEREAS; Wisconsin's community action agencies are committed to incorporating and amplifying the voices of the people living in the communities they serve, with a board structure that includes low-income individuals and families, elected officials or their representatives, and local professionals, groups, and interests; and

WHEREAS; WISCAP is comprised of 16 community action agencies and two single-purpose agencies with statewide focus who work together to fight poverty and help Wisconsinites achieve economic self-sufficiency; and

WHEREAS; this month, the state of Wisconsin renews its resolve to partner with community action agencies and partners to fight inequities, reduce economic disparities, and provide resources and support to individuals, families, and communities throughout the state;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim May 2024 as

COMMUNITY ACTION MONTH

throughout the State of Wisconsin, and I commend this observance to all our state's residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 26th day of April 2024.

TONY EVERS
