

WHEREAS; Outagamie County is hosting the 2025 Wisconsin Farm Technology Days at Clinton Farms in Bear Creek; and

WHEREAS; Wisconsin Farm Technology Days is the largest agricultural show in Wisconsin, with the first ever show held in Waupaca County in 1954, eventually growing to become one of the largest outdoor agricultural events in the country, attracting thousands of attendees and hundreds of exhibitors every year; and

WHEREAS; the three-day event offers opportunities for visitors of all ages to learn about the newest innovations in agriculture, watch field demonstrations, speak with exhibitors, connect with available services, and explore and discover careers in agriculture and related fields; and

WHEREAS; Clinton Farms has a rich history hosting the Wisconsin Farm Technology Days, having held the 25th anniversary show of the old Wisconsin Farm Progress Days in 1978, as well as the very first Wisconsin Farm Technology Days show in 2003; and

WHEREAS; Outagamie County’s economy is driven by a wide range of agricultural activity, with more than half of the county’s land occupied by farms, and the county is a leader in dairy production, along with grain, nursery, greenhouse, floriculture, and sod, as well as cattle and other livestock; and

WHEREAS; every year, the Wisconsin Farm Technology Days serve as a tribute to Wisconsin’s farmers and farm families, whose hard work and innovation greatly contribute to the state’s over $116 billion Agricultural industry and similarly make Wisconsin the great state it is to live, work, and raise a family; and

WHEREAS; on this occasion, the state of Wisconsin joins the greater Outagamie County community in welcoming individuals from across the state and county to the 2025 Wisconsin Farm Technology Days and wishes all organizers, volunteers, and attendees a successful event;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim August 5 through 7 2025 as

FARM TECHNOLOGY DAYS

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state’s residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 28th day of July 2025.

TONY EVERS, Governor

By the Governor:

SARAH GODLEWSKI, Secretary of State
