

STATE of WISCONSIN

OFFICE of the GOVERNOR

Proclamation

WHEREAS; the state of Wisconsin acknowledges the many physical and mental health benefits of breastfeeding for mothers, babies, and parents and promotes inclusive support for every family, regardless of race, ethnicity, gender identity, sexual orientation, education level, socioeconomic status, or any other factor that makes every family and community unique; and

WHEREAS; Indigenous people face unique barriers and systemic racism in healthcare, employment, and community settings, and it is well-documented that racial disparities in breastfeeding rates persist due to these barriers; and

WHEREAS; reducing racial disparities in healthcare and birth outcomes, promoting diversity in the lactation field, and changing systems and structures to better support families is critical, and the state applauds the community-based organizations that are championing this important work; and

WHEREAS; while August is National Breastfeeding Month, Indigenous Milk Medicine Week is specifically dedicated to prioritizing and celebrating the experiences of Native families and is centered on encouraging breastfeeding to combat the systemic injustices that prevent families from achieving their full potential; and

WHEREAS; this week, the state of Wisconsin joins dedicated advocates and organizations across the state, along with the Wisconsin Department of Health Services, in celebrating breastfeeding, promoting awareness of its benefits, and ensuring equitable access and opportunity for all mothers, babies, and parents, now and in the future;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim August 8 – 14, 2026, as

INDIGENOUS MILK MEDICINE WEEK

throughout the State of Wisconsin, and I commend this observance to all our state's residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 9th day of July 2026.
