

WHEREAS; libraries are an essential resource in communities across Wisconsin, connecting the dots by offering free and accessible information to the public and serving as centers of knowledge and opportunity where community members of all ages, backgrounds, and abilities can feel safe and represented; and

WHEREAS; protecting and investing in public libraries is important to creating and maintaining more engaged communities, promoting a greater understanding of one another, and fostering a stronger democracy; and

WHEREAS; while initiatives to expand access to high-speed internet remain underway for Wisconsin communities, libraries can provide critical access to computers and Wi-Fi and may offer hotspots or laptops that can be checked out for use; and

WHEREAS; libraries disseminate information, instruction, and guidance, as well as help ensure history is preserved truthfully and with integrity, and Wisconsin’s librarians go above and beyond to provide social and informational services to all who utilize their expertise; and

WHEREAS; in addition to boasting book-lined shelves and friendly, knowledgeable, and helpful librarians and staff, libraries also offer periodicals, audiobooks, and e-books, making the path to reading more accessible; and

WHEREAS; this month, the state of Wisconsin joins libraries, librarians, and library staff, supporters, and advocates in encouraging all Wisconsinites to sign up for a library card, visit their local library, and support local libraries across the state;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim September 2026 as

NATIONAL LIBRARY CARD SIGN-UP MONTH

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state’s residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 26th day of August 2026.

TONY EVERS, Governor

By the Governor:

SARAH GODLEWSKI, Secretary of State
