

WHEREAS; for generations, immigrants and refugees from every corner of the globe have made the United States and Wisconsin their home, bringing with them fresh, new ideas, supporting and strengthening the workforce and economy, and helping to form and enrich the unique and diverse character of the state and nation; and

WHEREAS; throughout history, immigrants and refugees have made important and unique social, economic, and cultural contributions to society, and the role of these communities in building and enhancing the nation should not be overlooked or undervalued; and

WHEREAS; during Welcoming Week, Wisconsinites are reminded of the state’s shared values of kindness, empathy, respect, and compassion, and that a welcoming and inclusive community is a benefit to all who call it home; and

WHEREAS; this week, the state of Wisconsin is proud to celebrate the unique stories, histories, and experience of Wisconsin’s vibrant immigrant and refugee communities, and encourages Wisconsinites to take this opportunity to reject all forms of hate and prejudice against immigrants and refugees and take action to make the state a more welcoming, accepting, and inclusive place for all;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim September 12 through 21 2025 as

WELCOMING WEEK
