

WHEREAS; renewable energy sources, including solar and wind power, are growing rapidly in the United States and play an important role in advancing the state of Wisconsin and the nation towards a clean energy future; and

WHEREAS; as pollution and climate change continue to present a pressing threat to the health, safety, and economic well-being of all Wisconsinites, clean energy found through solar and wind power offers a reliable and responsible way to prevent climate damage while ensuring a dependable source of power; and

WHEREAS; the least expensive way to produce energy and supporting thousands of jobs across the state, solar and wind power offer a path to lower utility bills, energy independence, and long-term affordability for Wisconsin residents and businesses alike; and

WHEREAS; the state of Wisconsin continues to strive towards clean energy implementation, including though Wisconsin’s first-ever Clean Energy Plan, which identifies dozens of paths and strategies aiming to lower energy bills for Wisconsin families, promote energy independence by reducing reliance on out-of-state energy sources, create an estimated more than 40,000 jobs by 2030, and invest in job training and apprenticeship programs in innovative industries and technologies; and

WHEREAS; today, the state of Wisconsin reaffirms its commitment to supporting innovative and sustainable solar and wind energy production and joins dedicated individuals, advocates, and organizations across the state in working towards the stronger, more sustainable clean energy future Wisconsinites need, want, and deserve;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim September 21 2025 as

SUN DAY

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state’s residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 16th day of September 2025.

TONY EVERS, Governor

By the Governor:

SARAH GODLEWSKI, Secretary of State