

STATE of WISCONSIN

OFFICE of the GOVERNOR

Proclamation

WHEREAS; physical therapists, assistants, and students serve people across Wisconsin in a variety of settings, including hospitals, veteran's facilities, clinics, nursing homes, rehabilitation facilities, schools, athletic settings, and homes; and

WHEREAS; Wisconsin's physical therapists, assistants, and students deliver services to Wisconsinites of all ages, from infants and children to aging and older adults; and

WHEREAS; people in the physical therapy profession commonly work with individuals who are athletes or active in their daily lives, helping them to achieve and maintain fitness, health, and overall wellness and to recover from injuries; and

WHEREAS; physical therapists treat a broad range of ailments, including common conditions such as back pain or carpal tunnel syndrome, physical trauma such as concussions or spinal cord injuries, and chronic conditions including, but not limited to, Parkinson's disease, multiple sclerosis, and muscular dystrophy; and

WHEREAS; other important services provided by professionals in this field include addressing and reducing pain for individuals who might otherwise rely on opioids or other pain medications that could result in ongoing reliance or challenges with substance use; and

WHEREAS; physical therapists, assistants, and students have historically played a vital role in rehabilitating members of the nation's armed forces and veterans with injuries, diseases, and disabilities; and

WHEREAS; this month, the state of Wisconsin joins all Wisconsinites in thanking the physical therapists, assistants, and students working every day to help people throughout the state stay healthy, active, independent, and pain-free;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim October 2023 as
