

WHEREAS; school psychologists work to support the academic, social-emotional, mental, and behavioral health needs of students through evidence-based assessment, intervention, and consultation; and

WHEREAS; school psychologists in Wisconsin work to implement professional practices that are data-driven and culturally responsive to meet community needs; and

WHEREAS; by partnering with families, educators, school administrators, and other professionals, school psychologists create safe, healthy, equitable, and supportive learning environments that strengthen students’ connections between home, school, and the community; and

WHEREAS; school psychologists ensure that their knowledge, skills, and professional practices reflect an understanding of each student’s individual needs and promote effective services and support for all students, families, and schools; and

WHEREAS; the theme of this year’s National School Psychology Week, “Let’s Grow Together,” aims to recognize the importance of personal and community growth as a critical part of learning environments and the role that school psychologists play in supporting student learning and well-being; and

WHEREAS; this week, the state of Wisconsin joins dedicated individuals and organizations across the state and country in celebrating the impact that school psychologists have on the lives of students, families, and communities;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim November 6 through 10 2023 as

NATIONAL SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGY WEEK

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state’s residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 30th day of October 2023.

TONY EVERS, Governor

By the Governor:

SARAH GODLEWSKI, Secretary of State