

WHEREAS; American Education Week presents communities nationwide with the opportunity to celebrate public education in the United States and honor the tireless efforts of educators, staff, researchers, advocates, and volunteers in the field of education; and

WHEREAS; education has facilitated some of the greatest advancements humankind has ever known, and continues to provide a foundation for engaged and informed voters, leaders, and community members to the benefit of the nation's democracy; and

WHEREAS; the state of Wisconsin is home to dedicated educators, school staff, and administrators who are committed to making a difference in the lives of kids across the state each day, including the students enrolled in Wisconsin's public schools; and

WHEREAS; what's best for kids is what's best for the state, and in 2025 the Year of the Kid, the state of Wisconsin reaffirms its commitment to building an education system that works for every student regardless of ZIP code, grade level, identity, or income, as well as expanding practices that adapt to the needs of students, educators, and administrators in every corner of the state; and

WHEREAS; this week, the state of Wisconsin joins dedicated agencies, individuals, organizations, and advocates throughout the state in working to expand access to high-quality public education and in honoring all those who work in the education field to inspire, empower, and support Wisconsin's students;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim November 17 through 21 2025 as

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state's residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 14th day of November 2025.

TONY EVERS, Governor

By the Governor:

SARAH GODLEWSKI, Secretary of State