

THE PEOPLE'S MAPS COMMISSION

Join the Commissioners for a virtual conversation with the following speakers, who will discuss the Voting Rights Act, as well as the effect of redistricting on underrepresented populations.

Public testimony will also be given.

Thursday, Jan. 14, 2020
5:00 – 8:30p.m.

REBECA M. LÓPEZ

Senior Associate,
Godfrey & Kahn: Labor, Employment &
Immigration Practice Group

Prior to beginning her legal practice, Rebeca worked for a United States Senator as a District Office Manager, Latino outreach and regional coordinator, and constituent services liaison. She is a Milwaukee native and remains actively involved in supporting Milwaukee non-profit organizations and small businesses.

TEHASSI HILL

Chairman, Oneida Nation

On behalf of the Oneida Nation, Chairman Hill serves a liaison for the National Congress of American Indians, is on the Natural Resources Damage Trustee Council, and is a designee to Environmental Protection Agency's Regional Tribal Operating Committee. Prior to his current role, Chairman Hill served two terms as a Council Member for the Oneida Business Committee.

JAMES HALL, JR.

Hall, Burce & Olson, S.C.

James H. Hall, Jr. has practiced law in Milwaukee since 1979, and has extensive experience representing individuals in matters involving discrimination in employment, housing, and education. He is also the past president of the NAACP Milwaukee Branch and is a founding member of 100 Black Men of Milwaukee. Additionally, he has served in numerous leadership positions for the National ACLU.

Working together to create fair, impartial maps.

For more information about the Commission, streaming of hearings, or how to provide comment to the commission members, visit:
bit.ly/PeoplesMaps