

Tony Evers

Office of the Governor | State of Wisconsin

Deputy Outreach Director

Governor Tony Evers is seeking a Deputy Outreach Director to join his Outreach Department in building community relationships and partnerships across the state.

The ideal candidate will have a proven ability to work with a variety of diverse groups, businesses, local governmental entities and community leaders. They will be committed to a high level of responsiveness and community engagement.

Job Responsibilities

The Deputy Outreach Director will report to the Outreach Director in Madison although work location is flexible. Travel across the state will be frequent, however a personal vehicle is not necessary.

Specific job duties include:

- Building relationships with organizations, local governmental entities and community leaders.
- Creating systems for rapid-response outreach and proactive planning.
- Attending community events on behalf of the Governor's Office.
- Traveling to communities across the state to represent the Governor and Administration.

Qualifications

Governor Evers is seeking candidates who excel in community relationship-building and can adapt to a fast-paced workplace. You should have:

- A demonstrated track record of developing and maintaining strong working relationships with and among a diverse group of partners.
- A demonstrated commitment to serving the state of Wisconsin.
- A high level of organizational skills and the ability to execute a statewide strategic plan.
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills.
- Minimum five years working in a related field.

Compensation

- Salary commensurate with experience.
- Generous benefits package.

The Office of Governor Tony Evers is an equal opportunity employer, and it strives to recruit and retain high quality staff who are committed to increasing the diversity of the organization.

How to Apply

- Send a cover letter and resume to Outreach Director, Jamie Kuhn at govpersonnel@wisconsin.gov.