

WHEREAS; there are nearly three million supermarket employees working throughout the United States, and hundreds of food retail establishments that employ tens of thousands of individuals and generate billions of dollars in economic activity in Wisconsin alone; and

WHEREAS; supermarket employees provide access to safe, nutritious, and affordable food, and work to enhance the health and well-being of every customer; and

WHEREAS; over the past two years, we recognize that supermarket employees have faced unprecedented challenges due to the coronavirus pandemic while working to keep our grocery shelves stocked; and

WHEREAS; supermarket employees have met, and continue to meet, these challenges, serving as essential workers and continually going above and beyond with customer service and community outreach; and

WHEREAS; due to current and growing consumer demands, as well as their reputation for excellence, there is a great—and growing—need for supermarket employees; and

WHEREAS; today, the state of Wisconsin joins all Wisconsinites in celebrating the important work of supermarket employees throughout our state, and thanks them for their courage, compassion, dedication, and leadership every day, and throughout the past two years, in particular;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim February 22, 2022, as

SUPERMARKET EMPLOYEE DAY

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state's residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 4th day of February 2022.

TONY EVERS, Governor

By the Governor:

DOUGLAS LA FOLLETTE, Secretary of State
