

WHEREAS; public procurement is a necessary function of state government that entails the purchase of materials, supplies, equipment, and contractual services needed to maintain the operation of public goods and services, such as education, health and human services, transportation, administration, and more; and

WHEREAS; guided by the principle of fiscal responsibility and the ethical use of taxpayer dollars, state procurement staff at the State Bureau of Procurement and in procurement offices across all state agencies and campuses work diligently to find effective and efficient ways to fund the necessary services the state provides; and

WHEREAS; public procurement staff have a unique skill set that allows them to maintain fair and competitive bid practices, conduct market research, carry out negotiations that benefit both the state and suppliers, and successfully monitor and evaluate all state contracts; and

WHEREAS; this month, the state of Wisconsin joins the dedicated procurement professionals at the State Bureau of Procurement and in procurement offices throughout the state in recognizing the importance of procurement and encouraging all Wisconsinites to familiarize themselves with the activities required to provide the state with quality, ethical purchases;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim March 2023 as

PROCUREMENT MONTH

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state's residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 6th day of March 2023.

TONY EVERS, Governor

By the Governor:

DOUGLAS LA FOLLETTE, Secretary of State