

WHEREAS; observed every year in March, coinciding with International Women’s Day, Women in Construction Week provides an opportunity to celebrate the success and growing role of women in the construction industry in Wisconsin and nationwide; and

WHEREAS; the focus of Women in Construction Week is to highlight women as a valuable component of the construction industry, both on worksites and in project management, as well as in legal, design, trades, and clerical capacities; and

WHEREAS; the state of Wisconsin recognizes the professional associations, organizations, and efforts across our state—including the National Association of Women in Construction (NAWIC) Milwaukee Chapter 105 and the Associated General Contractors (AGC) of Wisconsin She Builds Wisconsin Initiative—that have tirelessly promoted the employment and advancement of women in the construction industry, including by providing classroom and hands-on experiences for our state’s youth to learn more about careers in the construction industry; and

WHEREAS; this occasion provides an opportunity to highlight women as visible and important partners in the construction industry in Wisconsin, and serves as a time for members of the construction industry to raise awareness of the opportunities available for women in the construction industry; and

WHEREAS; this week, the state of Wisconsin joins dedicated individuals and organizations throughout the construction industry, including NAWIC Milwaukee Chapter 105, the AGC of Wisconsin She Builds Wisconsin Initiative, and all other construction organizations and laborers, in celebrating the many contributions of women in construction;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim March 6 through 12, 2022, as

WOMEN IN CONSTRUCTION WEEK

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state’s residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 18th day of February 2022.

TONY EVERS, Governor

By the Governor:

DOUGLAS LA FOLLETTE, Secretary of State
