

WHEREAS; Education and Sharing Day has been recognized nationwide since 1978, in tribute to the life's work of the Rebbe, Rabbi Menachem M. Schneerson; and

WHEREAS; as a global spiritual leader of the Jewish community and a tireless advocate for youth around the world, the Rebbe emphasized the importance of ensuring access to a high-quality education for all children; and

WHEREAS; the work of Wisconsin's educators, administrators, policy-makers, parents, and guardians is crucial to improving educational opportunities for our state's students, and to expanding access to a high-quality public education for every Wisconsinite; and

WHEREAS; a high-quality, accessible public education is vital to the success of our state and country, and plays an essential role in safeguarding the freedom and autonomy of our state's residents and communities; and

WHEREAS; today, the state of Wisconsin honors the Rebbe's legacy, encourages acts of goodness and kindness in his memory, and reaffirms our state's commitment to establishing an educational infrastructure that enables all students to reach their full potential, regardless of their age, background, or identity;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim March 24, 2021, as

WISCONSIN EDUCATION AND SHARING DAY

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state's residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 24th day of March 2021.

TONY EVERS, Governor

By the Governor:

DOUGLAS LA FOLLETTE, Secretary of State
