

WHEREAS; ensuring that every child in Wisconsin has access to a well-rounded education, which includes instruction on financial literacy, is an essential investment in our state's economy and future; and

WHEREAS; our state recognizes that financial education from an early age provides a strong foundation upon which our state's kids can grow into financially independent adults, helping them form lifelong habits of saving, using credit wisely, and demonstrating fiscal responsibility; and

WHEREAS; each year, bank volunteers across Wisconsin make it a goal to educate our state's students about money, and even in the face of challenges brought on by the coronavirus pandemic, bankers have come up with new and creative ways to advocate for the importance of financial literacy by donating to schools and libraries, producing videos of bankers reading books on financial literacy, and providing teachers with instructions and activities for their students; and

WHEREAS; the Wisconsin Bankers Foundation has also developed a program—Reading Raises Interest—to encourage students to read, set goals, and save money; and

WHEREAS; Wisconsin bank representatives serve on the Governor's Council on Financial Literacy and Capability, which is charged with examining and identifying strategies to measurably improve the financial literacy and inclusion of all Wisconsinites; and

WHEREAS; today, the state of Wisconsin encourages parents, educators, and community volunteers to continue instilling in our kids the value of making smart financial decisions and providing them with good role models in handling their own finances;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim April 28, 2022, as

WISCONSIN TEACH CHILDREN TO SAVE DAY

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state's residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 11th day of March 2022.

TONY EVERS, Governor

By the Governor:

DOUGLAS LA FOLLETTE, Secretary of State