

WHEREAS; Wisconsin is home to more than 15,000 lakes and over 84,000 miles of rivers and streams, as well as the Waterpark Capital of the World in Wisconsin Dells; and

WHEREAS; whether natural or manmade, Wisconsin's waterways and water attractions are vast and valuable resources enjoyed by many, and swimming and water-related activities are major sources of entertainment and enjoyment for Wisconsinites and visitors alike; and

WHEREAS; swimming and water-related activities enhance the overall quality of life in Wisconsin's communities and play a vital role in promoting good physical and mental health for all Wisconsinites, encouraging time together with friends and family, bolstering the outdoor recreational economy, and providing safe places for folks of all ages and abilities to learn, play, exercise, build self-esteem, and make memories; and

WHEREAS; robust and early water safety education is critical to preventing drownings and other recreational water-related accidents and injuries, especially for kids; and

WHEREAS; the state of Wisconsin recognizes the ongoing efforts and commitments by the recreational water industry to develop safe facilities and educate the public on water safety; and

WHEREAS; this month, the state of Wisconsin joins the recreational water industry in promoting safe recreational use of water year-round and urges Wisconsinites of all ages—whether owners of private pools, users of public swimming facilities, or visitors of spas, waterparks, state parks, or any of the state's numerous lakes and rivers—to exercise caution in the water and understand the importance of following water safety rules, both for their own health and safety and for the health and safety of others;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim May 2023 as

NATIONAL WATER SAFETY MONTH

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state's residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 21st day of April 2023.

TONY EVERS, Governor

By the Governor:

SARAH GODLEWSKI, Secretary of State
