

WHEREAS; this year commemorates the 74th anniversary of the Women’s Armed Services Integration Act, which was signed into law by President Harry S. Truman on June 12, 1948, and enabled women to serve in all branches of the United States military as permanent, full members; and

WHEREAS; women have served in every branch and component of the United States Armed Forces—from the Revolutionary War to current conflicts throughout the world—to protect and defend our country’s values and ideals, and will continue to do so in ever increasing numbers; and

WHEREAS; women are the fastest growing segment of the veteran population, currently making up 10 percent of Wisconsin’s veteran population and estimated to make up 18 percent by 2040; and

WHEREAS; as trailblazers in an environment historically dominated by men, women veterans face a unique set of challenges, both during their time in the military and once they return to civilian life, and much more remains to be done to ensure that women in the Armed Forces and women veterans are treated equitably and with the respect they deserve; and

WHEREAS; having served our nation with courage, loyalty, integrity, and pride, women veterans continue their service as civilians in their families and communities as leaders in business, government, education, healthcare, non-profit sectors, and more; and

WHEREAS; the Wisconsin Department of Veterans Affairs’ (WDVA) Women Veterans Program advocates for, empowers, supports, and highlights the achievements of our state’s women veterans through a Woman Veteran of the Year Award, a Woman Veteran Quarterly Impact Award, an annual Women Veterans Retreat, trailblazer articles, women wellness events, and the Wisconsin Veterans Museum’s women veterans oral history archive and the “I Am Not Invisible” traveling exhibit; and

WHEREAS; today and every day, the state of Wisconsin joins WDVA and all Wisconsinites in commending the dedication, resilience, and perseverance of our women veterans and the many sacrifices made by them and their families in service to our country;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim June 12, 2022, as

WOMEN VETERANS DAY

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state’s residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 18th day of May 2022.

TONY EVERS, Governor

By the Governor:

DOUGLAS LA FOLLETTE, Secretary of State
