

STATE of WISCONSIN

OFFICE of the GOVERNOR

Proclamation

WHEREAS; the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA) was passed by the U.S. Congress on July 26, 1990, to ensure the civil rights of individuals with disabilities in our country; and

WHEREAS; the ADA codified protections against discrimination for individuals with disabilities, requiring employers to begin providing reasonable accommodations, establishing accessibility requirements in public places, and requiring state and local governments to provide a full and equal opportunity to vote for people of all abilities, among other important provisions; and

WHEREAS; in the decades before and since the passage of the ADA, Wisconsinites with disabilities have worked tirelessly to overcome barriers—both interpersonal and institutional—and advance inclusion and accessibility for all; and

WHEREAS; numerous organizations and agencies throughout our state, including Disability Rights Wisconsin, the Wisconsin Board for People with Developmental Disabilities, and the Wisconsin Disability Vote Coalition, are committed to working with communities across our state to realize the full promise of hope, freedom, and equality envisioned by the passage of the ADA 32 years ago; and

WHEREAS; as we celebrate the 32nd anniversary of the ADA, we recognize that much work still needs to be done to ensure equity and equality for individuals with disabilities in Wisconsin and across our country, including ensuring voting is as accessible and easy as possible for every eligible voter in our state; and

WHEREAS; today, the state of Wisconsin reaffirms its commitment to the principals of equality and inclusion for all persons with disabilities as embodied by the Americans with Disabilities Act and the laws of our state;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin,
