

WHEREAS; mental health and substance use disorders affect all Wisconsin communities, and improving overall health and wellness is a priority for our state; and

WHEREAS; prevention, treatment, and recovery support services are effective and available statewide, providing folks who may be struggling with mental health and substance use disorders the tools they need to live full, successful lives; and

WHEREAS; now is the time to eliminate the stigma that too often prevents individuals from seeking much-needed care, which can be done by raising awareness of mental health and substance use disorders and embodying our Wisconsin values of kindness, respect, empathy, and compassion; and

WHEREAS; the state of Wisconsin, together with the Wisconsin Department of Health Services (DHS) and its local, state, and Tribal partners, is committed to addressing mental health and substance use challenges by promoting resilience, expanding access to essential recovery support services, and creating inclusive spaces and programs that acknowledge every individual's unique experiences and needs; and

WHEREAS; this month, the state of Wisconsin joins DHS in celebrating all people's journeys in recovery and in recognizing the dedicated workers and advocates who provide the prevention, treatment, and support services that help make recovery possible every day;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim September 2022 as
