

STATE of WISCONSIN

OFFICE of the GOVERNOR

Proclamation

WHEREAS; assisted living is a critical long-term care option for older adults and individuals with disabilities, fostering choice, dignity, and independence; and

WHEREAS; Wisconsin's assisted living communities are committed to excellence, innovation, and the advancement of person-centered care; and

WHEREAS; residents of assisted living centers have always played a critical role in our state, and they continue to offer their knowledge, life experiences, and involvement as active members of their local communities; and

WHEREAS; in 1995, the National Center for Assisted Living established National Assisted Living Week to honor the contributions of assisted living communities in providing long-term care to older adults and individuals with disabilities throughout the United States; and

WHEREAS; the theme of this year's observance—"Joyful Moments"—highlights the incredible and compassionate care provided by essential caregivers and the special memories created in assisted living centers; and

WHEREAS; this week, the state of Wisconsin encourages assisted living communities across our state to organize activities and events which celebrate the dedication of staff, the individual experiences of residents, and the deep connections made in these settings;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim September 11 – 17, 2022, as

NATIONAL ASSISTED LIVING WEEK

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state's residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 26th day of August 2022.
