

WHEREAS; according to a report by the National Alliance for Caregiving and AARP, an estimated 53 million adults in the United States—or nearly one in five Americans—is an unpaid caregiver; and

WHEREAS; motivated by love, concern, and commitment, family caregivers in Wisconsin and around the world provide critical services that promote the well-being and enhance the quality of life of our most vulnerable populations; and

WHEREAS; family caregivers assist with daily living needs and often perform complex medical tasks so that their loved ones can continue to live at home; and

WHEREAS; caregiving is a lifespan issue that is not bound by age, race, gender, ability, or diagnosis, and our state recognizes that family caregivers often struggle to meet their own personal and occupational needs, as well as the needs of others in their households, and that they require support to stay healthy, both physically and mentally; and

WHEREAS; respite care is proven to help alleviate stress and improve the health and well-being of caregivers, although a vast majority of family caregivers are not receiving this valuable service; and

WHEREAS; the ARCH National Respite Network and Resource Center brings together a national network of people who provide, utilize, or need respite services to exchange knowledge and working practices focused on respite care for family caregivers; and

WHEREAS; this week, coinciding with the annual National Lifespan Respite Conference, hosted by the Respite Care Association of Wisconsin and the ARCH National Respite Network and Resource Center, the state of Wisconsin celebrates family caregivers for the critical contributions they make in service to folks across our state, country, and throughout the world, and reaffirms its commitment to expanding services that support caregivers and enhance caregiving;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim September 12 through 16 2022 as

RESPITE CARE AWARENESS WEEK

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state's residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 13th day of September 2022.
