

WHEREAS; the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention estimate that six in ten adults in the United States are living with a chronic medical condition and that one in four adults live with a disability, many of which are considered invisible or hidden; and

WHEREAS; disabilities, chronic illnesses, chronic pain, and injuries can all be considered invisible disabilities and can range from minor impairments to conditions that are completely disabling; and

WHEREAS; the term invisible disability was created and defined by the Invisible Disabilities Association (IDA), and establishes invisible disabilities as disabilities that are not outwardly perceivable and therefore can cause the affected individual to struggle with little acknowledgement from the outside world; and

WHEREAS; many individuals with invisible disabilities face criticism and are accused of faking or exaggerating their conditions, which can result in a lack of funding for necessary programs and research, accommodations, medical resources, and overall support for those with invisible disabilities; and

WHEREAS; this week, the state of Wisconsin joins the Invisible Disabilities Association in raising awareness of invisible disabilities and working to educate, uplift, and connect individuals with invisible disabilities so that these conditions will be invisible no more;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim October 16 through 22 2022 as

INVISIBLE DISABILITIES WEEK

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state's residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 25th day of October 2022.
