

WHEREAS; the arts and humanities are essential components of a complete and balanced education for all students; and

WHEREAS; hands-on education in the arts, literature, and technology aids in the development of imaginative and creative skills that are advantageous in today's modern workforce; and

WHEREAS; greater access to the arts, literature, and technology—both inside and outside of the classroom—can lead students to have better academic results, workforce opportunities, and engagement within their communities; and

WHEREAS; by providing resources and opportunities that encourage and support kids' interests and achievement in the arts, literature, and technology, the Awesome Young Authors' Awards and Community helps set Wisconsin students up for a lifelong passion for learning, creation, and discovery; and

WHEREAS; today, the state of Wisconsin joins the Awesome Young Authors' Awards and Community in applauding the dedication and outstanding achievements of young authors, innovators, and creatives throughout the state and reaffirms its commitment to supporting the arts and humanities for all students;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Tony Evers, Governor of the State of Wisconsin, do hereby proclaim November 5 2022 as

YOUNG AUTHORS COMMUNITY DAY

throughout the State of Wisconsin and I commend this observance to all our state's residents.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the Great Seal of the State of Wisconsin to be affixed. Done at the Capitol in the City of Madison this 30th day of September 2022.

TONY EVERS, Governor

By the Governor:

DOUGLAS LA FOLLETTE, Secretary of State